Nicole Connor's rise as one of the well-respected Talent Agents in Los Angeles came as no surprise. With a passion and dedication for this business, especially developing undiscovered talent, Nicole soon saw the fruits of her labor, as her talent was being sought after by Casting Directors. Central Artists in Hollywood is delighted to have Nicole Connor bring her years of experience into their facility.

With recognition, Nicole was invited to scout talent across the United States and Canada. Her eye for talent and her careful selection of talent soon showed its rewards as her talent has booked projects for just about every major studio that includes 20th Century Fox, Warner Bros., Disney and Nickelodeon, just to name a few. Her talent also continues to book National, Regional and Worldwide Commercials and Nicole continue to seek undiscovered talent that has the drive, passion and potential. Nicole believes that "Passion must be the thread woven through the fabric of an actor – passion cannot be taught."

Don't miss this chance for a great experience to network in our "biz"!
