

Presents:

Saturday, October 19, 2024

Alicia Beekman

DDO Artists Agency made its mark in the Entertainment business in 1969 when founder, Dorothy Day Otis created an agency to focus on representing the talent in Hollywood. After maintaining an extremely successful Agency, DDO expanded to offer more representation services to a larger group of clientele. Otis' passion and determination marked DDO as a prestigious, well-respected agency, leading to its expansion and continued accomplishments today.

Our offices in Los Angeles, New York City, Chicago and Atlanta provide performers representation across the country for Commercial, TV, Film, Voice-Over, Print, and Theater. Alicia specializes in working with talent in the LA market in TV, film and VO.

Some of her clients can be seen in the following:

Theatrical (TV/film):

- Series regular in the upcoming Wizards Beyond Waverly Place (reboot of Wizards of Waverly Place)
- Series regular Goosebumps on Disney+
- Series lead on Classified on Amazon Prime
- Series Regular in Emmy-winning Apple + Show Ghostwriter
- Series Regular in Apple+ show JANE produced/created by Jane Goodall
- Heavy recurring guest stars including: The Orville, Grey's Anatomy (for 8 years), 9-1-1, Loud House, Lioness, Dr. Death, Family Reunion, Mare of Easttown, The Connors, Erin and Aaron, and so many more.

Animation:

- Voice of Donatello in Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: Mutant Mayhem and the upcoming series Tales of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles
- Series lead voice of Spidey in Spidey and His Amazing Friends
- Series regular voice on Bubble Guppies on Nick Jr
- Voice of M3gan (the doll in the Blumhouse film)
- Series regular voice on The Loud House animated series
- Major voice in Inside Out 2
- Lead voice in the Diary of a Wimpy Kid animated film series on Disney + and many more!

You must be registered with Images to attend!

DO NOT contact the Hollywood Agent directly - must go through Images Agency